

OUR HISTORY

CCWRC was founded by six Republican women in 1958, with nine charter members, almost all from the Chevy Chase community. Today there are over 150 members from the entire metropolitan area.

WHAT CCWRC OFFERS

CCWRC invites speakers on issues relevant to current events. Our meetings are held either during the daytime, evening, weekend or weekday, providing choices to our membership. The programs may include issue briefings by elected officials and the media, speakers of national prominence or events promoting one of our community outreach projects, which include Salvation Army, Mamie Eisenhower Library Project, Charity Bridge Marathon, among others.
